 - (b) Any securities issued under paragraph (a) shall be in such type, form and manner and on such terms and conditions as the Bank may determine.
 - (c) The Bank may issue such directives, guidelines, instructions or rules as it may determine for the purpose of this subsection.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), any shares of any corporation or company held by the Bank under the repealed Bank of Mauritius Act, before 10 November 2004, shall continue to be held by the Bank under this Act.
- (4) Notwithstanding this Act, the Bank may –
- (a) enter into such agreement;
 - (b) purchase or otherwise acquire such immovable property or any right therein;
 - (c) lease such movable or immovable property; and
 - (d) generally engage in such activities,
- as may be reasonably necessary, for the purpose of establishing an Islamic money market in Mauritius.
- (5) The Bank may apply to the Judge in Chambers for an order in respect of any matter relating to any of its functions under section 5.
- (6) Without prejudice to subsection (5), an order under that subsection may direct the person to do a specified act or refrain from doing a specified act, for the purposes of –
- (a) preventing a contravention of the banking laws;
 - (b) compelling any person to comply with a lawful request, direction or instruction made, issued or given by the Bank under the banking laws;
 - (c) remedying the effects of a contravention;
 - (d) ensuring that the person does not commit further contraventions of the banking laws.
 - (e) preserving the assets of a financial institution; or
 - (f) compensating any person who has suffered loss because of a contravention.

(7) The Bank shall not be required, as a condition of the making of an interim order under this section, to give an undertaking as to damages.

(8) The power of the Judge in Chambers under this section may be exercised whether or not the person has previously engaged, is engaging or intends to engage in doing or refraining from doing any specified act relating to the purposes referred to in subsection (6).

(9) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this section, the Bank shall have the right to –

- (a) institute and conduct proceedings in any Court against any financial institution for the proper application of the banking laws;
- (b) ask for and obtain declaratory orders from the Supreme Court;
- (c) seek guidance and directions from the Supreme Court on any point of law or as to the interpretation of any provision of the banking laws;
- (d) intervene in any proceedings in which a financial institution is a party.

(10) Where, on an application by the Bank, the Judge in Chambers is satisfied that the Bank has reasonable ground to suspect that a person has committed, is committing or is likely to commit an offence under the banking laws, the Judge in Chambers may order –

- (a) the prohibition by the suspect or any other person acting on his behalf, or any person holding assets on his behalf, from disposing, transferring or pledging any of his assets or making any withdrawal from any account or deposit at a financial institution;
- (b) the attachment in the hands of any other person named in the order of all moneys and other property due or owing, or belonging to, or held on behalf of, the suspect;
- (c) the suspect to make a full disclosure, within such time as may be specified in the order, of all his possessions and the nature and source of such possessions;
- (d) any other person named in the order to make a full disclosure of all moneys and property held on behalf of the suspect; or
- (e) the opening, in the presence of a person authorised by the Bank, of any safe deposit box held in any bank on behalf of the suspect.

(11) Where an order is made under subsection (10)(a) and (b), the Bank may –

- (a) give public notice of the order, unless the Bank reasonably believes that such notice is likely to obstruct the conduct of any investigation under this Act; and

- (b) give notice of the order to all notaries and to the head offices of all banks and branches, investment dealers, cash dealers and financial institutions and any other person who may hold or be vested with property belonging to or held on behalf of the suspect.

(12) An order under subsection (10) shall be served on the suspect and on each person named in the order.

(13) Where a notice is published under subsection (11), any person who allows, procures or facilitates the disposal of money or property belonging to the suspect shall commit an offence.

- (14) (a) The Judge in Chambers may, on application and on good and sufficient cause shown, authorise such reasonable amounts to be withdrawn from a bank or other financial institution for the subsistence of the suspect on such conditions as the Judge may determine.

- (b) The Bank shall be a party to any application under paragraph (a).

(15) An order under subsection (10)(a) and (b) shall remain in force –

- (a) where an investigation is being carried out by the Bank or Commissioner of Police, until the completion of the investigation, or until such time as the Bank or the Commissioner of Police decides not to proceed with the investigation or recommend that the order be lifted; or
- (b) where the suspect is charged with an offence, until the final determination of that charge by a Court or until such time as the Director of Public Prosecutions decides not to proceed with the charge.

(16) In this section –

“Covid-19 virus” means the novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV);

“suspect” means a person whom the Bank has reasonable ground to suspect has committed, is committing or is likely to commit an offence under the banking laws.

7. Endorsement of security under the Code Civil Mauricien

(1) Where a security is pledged by any bank or other financial institution in favour of the Bank or another bank or financial institution and the relevant entries have been made by the Bank in its books and records in this respect, such entries shall constitute the endorsement of the security for the purpose of article 2076 of the Code Civil Mauricien and the registration of the pledge for the purpose of article 2077 of the Code Civil Mauricien.

(2) Articles 2129-1 to 2129-6 and articles 2150-1 to 2150-6 of the Code Civil Mauricien shall apply to the Bank as if the Bank were a bank established under the Banking Act.

8. Publication of interest rates

The Bank shall, at all times, make public its interest rates applicable to deposits made with it by, and advances granted to, banks.

9. Limitations on activities of Bank

(1) Subject to this Act, the Bank shall not -

- (a) engage in any trade or acquire any interest in any commercial, agricultural, industrial or any other undertaking, except where -
 - (i) such interest is acquired in satisfaction of debts due to the Bank; and
 - (ii) the interest so acquired is disposed of at the earliest opportunity;
- (b) purchase, acquire or lease immovable property, except where the premises are necessary for the conduct of its business under this Act;
- (c) grant loans upon the security of any shares;
- (d) draw or accept bills payable otherwise than on demand;
- (e) allow the renewal or substitution of maturing bills of exchange purchased, discounted or rediscounted by or pledged with the Bank;
- (f) accept for discount, or as security for an advance made by the Bank, bills or notes signed by the Governor, a Deputy Governor, any other Director or an employee of the Bank;
- (g) open accounts for and accept deposits from persons, otherwise than as provided for in section 6 (1) (a), (b) and (u);
- (h) guarantee loans or advances for the Government or any person, nor grant loans or advances to the Government or any person, except as provided for in sections 6(1), 48(1) and 58.

(2) Subject to section 58, the Bank shall not grant any advances, otherwise than as specified in section 6(1)(n), (o) and (p).

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), where the Bank is of the opinion that any debt due to it is at risk, the Bank may secure such debts on any immovable or other property of the debtor and may acquire such property, which shall be resold at the earliest available opportunity.

(3A) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), the Bank may lease its premises to such public bodies and for such purposes as the Board may determine.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(e), the Board may, in exceptional circumstances by resolution, authorise either one renewal or one substitution of not more than 50 per cent of the original amount of any such bill for a period not exceeding 90 days.

PART III - CAPITAL AND RESERVE

10. Capital

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the stated capital of the Bank shall be one billion rupees.

(2) The Minister may, upon the recommendation of the Board, increase from time to time the amount paid as capital of the Bank by transfer from the General Reserve Fund.

(3) The amounts paid as capital shall -

- (a) be not less than one billion rupees;
- (b) be subscribed and held solely by Government; and
- (c) not be transferable or subject to any encumbrance.

(4) The amount paid as capital of the Bank may be increased from time to time by transfer from the General Reserve Fund referred to in section 11, or the Special Reserve Fund referred to in section 47, of such amounts as the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, resolve.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Minister shall cause to be transferred in full ownership to the Bank, negotiable interest-bearing securities issued from time to time by Government at market rates for such amount as, in the opinion of the Board, is necessary for the purpose of preserving the amount paid as capital of the Bank from any impairment.

(6) The interest on the securities referred to in subsection (5) shall be equal to -

- (a) the interest that Government is currently paying on securities of one year maturity; or
- (b) where securities of such maturity are not outstanding, the interest on any other form of Government indebtedness of which the maturity is closest to one year.

11. General Reserve Fund and other Reserve Funds

(1) The Board shall determine the net profits of the Bank for each financial year, after meeting all current expenditure for that year and after making such provision as it thinks fit for bad and doubtful debts, depreciation in assets, contributions to staff funds and superannuation funds and other contingencies.

(2) The Bank shall establish a General Reserve Fund to which shall be allocated, at the end of every financial year of the Bank, 15 per cent of the net profits of the Bank.

(3) The balance of the net profits for the financial year remaining after the allocation made under subsection (2) shall, subject to subsection (4), be paid into the Consolidated Fund as soon as practicable after the end of every financial year.

(3A) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Bank may, with the approval of the Board, create, out of its net profits, reserves for monetary policy purposes or such other specific purposes as the Bank may determine in conformity with accounting principles applicable to central banks and best international practices.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the balance in the General Reserve Fund shall be at least equivalent to the amount paid as capital of the Bank.

(5) Where, at any time, the balance in the General Reserve Fund is less than the amount paid as capital of the Bank, the Bank shall endeavour to bring the balance to the required level.

(6) No allocation under subsection (3) shall be made where, in the opinion of the Board -

- (a) the assets of the Bank are, or after such allocation would be, less than the sum of its liabilities and paid up capital; or
- (b) the Bank would not be in a financial position to conduct its activities properly.

(7) The Bank may, at the end of any financial year, meet any loss incurred by it in that year from the General Reserve Fund.

PART IV - BOARD, MANAGEMENT AND STAFF

12. Board of Directors

(1) The general policy of the affairs and business of the Bank, other than the formulation and determination of monetary policy, shall, subject to this Act, be entrusted to a Board of Directors.

(2) The Board shall consist of -

- (a) the Governor, who shall be the Chairperson;
- (b) 2 Deputy Governors; and
- (c) not less than 5 and not more than 7 other Directors appointed in accordance with section 16.

(3) In the exercise of its functions, the Board shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

(4) Every Director, other than the Governor and the Deputy Governors, shall be paid such fees as the Minister may determine.

13. Governor

(1) The Governor shall be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Prime Minister.

(2) No person shall be appointed as Governor unless the person -

- (a) is a citizen of Mauritius;
- (b) holds a professional qualification or university degree; and
- (c) has recognised experience in banking or financial matters.

(3) The Governor shall be the principal representative of the Bank and shall be responsible for the execution of the policy of the Board and the general supervision of the Bank.

(4) The Governor shall, in the discharge of his functions under this Act, be answerable to the Board.

14. Deputy Governors

(1) The Deputy Governors shall be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Prime Minister.

(2) No person shall be appointed as Deputy Governor unless the person -

- (a) is a citizen of Mauritius;
- (b) holds a professional qualification or university degree; and
- (c) has recognised experience in banking or financial matters.

(3) The Deputy Governors shall, under the general supervision of the Governor, be responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Bank.

(4) In the absence of the Governor, the First Deputy Governor shall act as Governor and, in the absence of the Governor and the First Deputy Governor, the Second Deputy Governor shall act as Governor.

15. Tenure of office and declaration of assets

- (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Governor and the Deputy Governors shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (b) The Governor and Deputy Governors shall hold office for a term not exceeding 5 years and shall be eligible for reappointment.
- (2) The Governor or the Deputy Governors shall not, during their tenure of office, hold any other office, whether remunerated or not, except with the consent of the President or as may be expressly provided in any enactment.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Governor or any Deputy Governor may be appointed-
 - (a) member of any commission established by or with the approval of Government to enquire into any matter affecting banking and financial matters in Mauritius; or
 - (b) Governor, director or member of a board or committee, by whatever name called, of any international authority to which the Bank or Mauritius is a member or party.
- (4) A declaration of assets, in the form specified in the First Schedule, shall, within 30 days of his appointment or of the coming into operation of this Act, be deposited by the Governor with the Minister in respect of himself, his spouse, his minor children and grandchildren and, subject to subsection (5), children of age.
- (5) The declaration shall, in relation to children of age, specify any property sold, transferred or donated to each one of them in any form or manner whatsoever, including income or benefits from any account, partnership or trust.
- (6) The Governor shall make a fresh declaration of assets by means of an affidavit every 2 years and at the expiry or termination of his employment on any ground.
- (7) Subsections (4) and (6) shall apply to every Deputy Governor in the same manner as they apply to the Governor.

16. Directors other than Governor and Deputy Governors

- (1) The Directors, other than the Governor and Deputy Governors, shall be appointed by the Minister.
- (2) The other Directors shall-
 - (a) be fit and proper persons of recognised experience in the field of economics, banking, finance, business or law;
 - (b) be persons of high integrity;
 - (c) not be actively engaged in any political activity.

- (3) (a) Subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), the other Directors shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of appointment.
- (b) The other Directors shall hold office for a term not exceeding 3 years, provided that not more than 2 of the other Directors shall terminate their term of office in the same year.
- (c) The other Directors appointed under this section shall be eligible for reappointment.

17. Disqualification

A person shall be disqualified from holding the office of Governor, Deputy Governor or other Director if he -

- (a) is employed in any capacity in the public service or holds any office or position for which any salary or other remuneration is payable out of public monies;
- (b) is a director, a partner, an official, an employee or a shareholder of any bank or other financial institution;
- (c) has committed any default or breach of trust or is guilty of serious misconduct in the discharge of his duties under this Act which, in the opinion of the President or Minister, as the case may be, renders him unfit to be appointed or to continue in office;
- (d) has been convicted of an offence of such nature as, in the opinion of the President or Minister, as the case may be, renders it desirable that he should be removed from office; or
- (e) is suffering from such mental or physical infirmity as to render him unfit to discharge his duties under this Act.

18. Resignation from office

Any Director may resign his office by giving at least 3 months' notice in writing of his intention to resign -

- (a) in the case of the Governor or a Deputy Governor, to the President; and
- (b) in the case of any other Director, to the Minister.

19. Vacation of office

The office of a Director shall become vacant -

- (a) on his death;

- (b) if he fails to attend 3 consecutive Board meetings without leave of the Board;
- (c) where he becomes subject to any disqualification under section 17;
- (d) has become insolvent or has assigned his estate for the benefit of his creditors or has made an arrangement or composition with his creditors;
- (e) where he resigns from office.

20. Vacancies in office of Director

Where the office of a Director becomes vacant before the expiry of the term for which he has been appointed, another person shall be appointed, for the unexpired period of the term of office of the Director in whose place he is appointed, in accordance with this Part.

21. Meetings of Board

- (1) The Board shall meet at the seat of the Bank at least once every 2 months.
- (2) The Governor shall preside at all meetings of the Board.
- (3) Every meeting of the Board shall be convened by the Secretary to the Board at the request -
 - (a) of the Governor; or
 - (b) in the absence of the Governor, of the First Deputy Governor; and
 - (c) in the First Deputy Governor's absence, of the Second Deputy Governor; or
 - (d) of at least 3 members of the Board.
- (4) At any meeting of the Board, 6 members shall constitute a quorum.

(5) A decision required to be taken by the Board shall be resolved by a simple majority of the members present and voting except that, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.

(6) Subject to this section, the Board shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit.

22. Disclosure of interest

- (1) Where a Director, his spouse or next of kin has any direct or indirect interest in relation to any matter before the Board, the Director shall -
 - (a) disclose, at or before the meeting convened to discuss that matter, the nature of his interests; and

- (b) not take part in any deliberation or decision-making process in relation to that matter.

(2) Every disclosure of interest made under this section shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board.

23. Secretary

(1) There shall be a Secretary to the Bank, who shall be appointed by the Board on such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit, and who shall be assigned such duties as may be determined by the Board.

(2) The Secretary to the Bank may act as Secretary to the Board.

(3) The Secretary to the Board shall –

- (a) prepare and attend every meeting of the Board;
- (b) keep minutes of its proceedings; and
- (c) perform such other duties as may be determined by the Board.

24. Appointment of staff

The Bank may employ, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, such persons as may be necessary for the proper discharge of its functions under the banking laws.

25. Consultants and other persons engaged to perform services

(1) Notwithstanding the Equal Opportunities Act, the Bank may, on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine, engage any consultant, or other person, suitably qualified to provide such services to the Bank as it thinks fit.

(2) The terms and conditions of the engagement shall be determined by the Board.

(3) Any person engaged under this section shall, during the period of his engagement, be deemed to be an officer of the Bank for the purposes of section 26.

26. Confidentiality

(1) Every Director, every officer or employee of the Bank or any person appointed by the Bank pursuant to the banking laws shall -

- (a) in the case of a Director or head of department, take an oath of confidentiality in the form set out in the Second Schedule; and
- (b) in any other case, make a declaration of confidentiality before the Chairperson of the Board in the form set out in the Third Schedule, before he begins to perform any duties under the banking laws.

- (2) Except -
 - (a) for the purposes of -
 - (i) the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions under the banking laws; or
 - (ii) meeting the requirements of an agreement or understanding reached by the Bank with any other relevant supervisory body; or
 - (b) when lawfully required to do so -
 - (i) by an order of a Judge in Chambers or any Court of law; or
 - (ii) under any enactment,

no person referred to in subsection (1) shall, during and after his relationship with the Bank, disclose directly or indirectly to any person any information relating to the affairs of the Bank, of any other bank or financial institution or of any of its customers, which he has acquired in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions.

(3) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

- (4) Nothing in this section shall preclude -
 - (a) the exchange or disclosure of any information, under conditions of confidentiality, between the Bank and any public sector agency, foreign supervisory institution or authority, international organisation or law enforcement agency, where the Bank is satisfied that the public sector agency, foreign supervisory institution or authority, international organisation or law enforcement agency has the capacity to protect the confidentiality of the information imparted, or between the Bank and any other foreign regulatory agency performing functions similar to those of the Bank under this Act or the National Payment Systems Act 2018, pursuant to any existing or future treaty, or agreement or memorandum of understanding entered into by the Bank or the State of Mauritius;
 - (aa) the disclosure by the Bank to the Financial Services Commission established under the Financial Services Act of such information as may be required by the Commission for the purposes of assisting it in the discharge of its functions;

- (ab) the Bank from publishing, in whole or in part and at such time as it may decide, any information or data furnished to it under section 24 of the National Payment Systems Act 2018;
- (b) the disclosure of any information pursuant to an order made by the Judge in Chambers under section 6 of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal and Related Matters Act;
- (c) the disclosure of any information to the Financial Intelligence Unit pursuant to section 22 of the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act;
- (d) the disclosure of any information or data by the Bank to Statistics Mauritius to enable the Director of Statistics to discharge, or assist him in discharging, any of his functions under the Statistics Act; or
- (e) the disclosure by the Bank of any information, documents and particulars to the Ombudsperson for Financial Services to enable him to discharge, or assist him in discharging, his functions under the Ombudsperson for Financial Services Act 2018.

(5) Any information given under subsection 4(a), (aa) and (d) may be given subject to conditions specified by the Bank, including conditions restricting the use and disclosure of the information imparted.

(6) For the purposes of this section –

“banking laws” includes the National Payment Systems Act 2018.

27. Execution of documents

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a deed, instrument, contract or other document shall be executed by or on behalf of the Bank if it is signed underneath the name of the Bank by the Governor or a Deputy Governor.

(2) The powers under subsection (1) may be exercised by the Secretary to the Bank and such other officer of the Bank as the Board may appoint for that purpose.

28. Authorisation of cheques or payment instructions

Any cheque or payment instruction upon any banking account kept by the Bank shall be signed or authorised, as the case may be, jointly by any 2 of -

- (a) the Governor;
- (b) a Deputy Governor;
- (c) officers of the Bank appointed by the Board for that purpose.

29. Indemnity

(1) The Governor, Deputy Governors, other Directors, and every officer or other employee of the Bank shall be indemnified by the Bank against all losses and expenses incurred by any of them by reason of any contract entered into, or act or deed done, in the proper discharge of his duties under the Act.

(2) No person referred to in subsection (1) shall be liable to the Bank for any loss or expense incurred by the Bank on account of the insufficiency or deficiency of value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Bank or on account of the insolvency, bankruptcy or wrongful act of any customer or debtor of the Bank, unless such loss or expense was due to wilful default in the execution of his duties under the Act.

PART V – ACCOUNTING, STATEMENTS AND TRANSPARENCY

30. Financial year

The financial year of the Bank shall begin on 1 July of each year and end on 30 June of the succeeding year.

31. Accounts and audit

(1) The accounting of the Bank shall, at all times, be carried out in conformity with accounting principles applicable to central banks and best international practices.

(2) The accounts of the Bank shall be audited at least once a year by such auditors as may be appointed by the Board.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), no auditor shall be appointed under subsection (2) continuously for a period of more than 5 years.

(4) Where an auditor is appointed continuously for a period of 5 years or less, that auditor shall not be reappointed before a period of 5 years from the date of termination of his last appointment.

32. Budget, annual accounts, annual report and returns

(1) The budget of the Bank in respect of a financial year shall be determined by the Board not later than 15 June immediately preceding that financial year.

(2) The annual accounts of the Bank shall be established in a transparent manner to ensure true and complete data on the financial status of the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall, not later than 4 months after the close of its financial year, cause to be made and submit to the Minister a copy of the annual accounts certified by the auditors together with a report on its operations during that year.

(4) The Minister shall, at the earliest available opportunity, lay a copy of the annual report and audited accounts before the National Assembly.

(5) The Bank shall, as soon as may be practicable, after the last working day of each month, prepare and publish a return of its assets and liabilities as at the close of business on that day.

(6) A copy of the return referred to in subsection (5) shall be submitted to the Minister.

(7) The Bank shall cause to be published in the Gazette –

(a) a copy of the audited accounts referred to in subsection (4), not later than 6 months after the close of its financial year; and

(b) a copy of the return referred to in subsection (5).

33. Transparency

(1) Without prejudice to sections 3(3) and 26, the Bank shall promote open discussions and comments on its monetary and financial stability policies.

(2) The Bank shall publish at least twice a year –

(a) a report on its monetary policy; and

(b) a report on financial stability.

(3) The reports referred to in subsection (2) shall include a review of price and financial stability, and an assessment of the policies of the Bank in relation thereto, followed during the reference period of the relevant report.

PART VI - CURRENCY

34. Unit of currency

The unit of currency in Mauritius shall be the rupee, which shall be divided into 100 cents.

35. Sole right to issue currency

(1) The Bank shall have the sole right to issue Mauritius currency notes, coins and digital currency.

(2) Any person, other than the Bank, who issues digital currency, Mauritius currency notes, bank notes or coins or any documents or tokens payable to bearer on demand having the appearance of or purporting to pass as legal tender or as currency or digital currency, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 2 million rupees and to penal servitude.

36. Printing of bank notes, minting of coins and issuing of digital currency

- (1) (a) Currency notes issued under this Act shall be –
 - (i) of such denomination and of such form, design, and content;
 - (ii) printed from such plates and on such paper or material; and
 - (iii) authenticated in such manner,as the Bank may, with the concurrence of the Minister, determine.
 - (b) Coins issued under this Act shall be of such denominations, of such weight, form and design and made of such metal as the Bank may, with the concurrence of the Minister, determine.
 - (c) Digital currency issued under this Act shall be in such denomination, design, form and manner as the Bank may, with the concurrence of the Minister, determine.
- (2) The Bank shall -
 - (a) arrange for the printing of currency notes and the minting of coins and for all matters relating thereto;
 - (b) issue and reissue currency notes and coins;
 - (c) arrange for the security and safe keeping of unissued stocks of currency notes and coins and for the preparation, safe custody and destruction of any paper, material, plate, block, die or other instrument used for the printing of currency notes and for the minting of coins.

37. Legal tender

- (1) Currency issued by the Bank under this Act shall be legal tender in Mauritius -
 - (a) in the case of notes and digital currency, for the payment of any amount;
 - (b) in the case of coins, for the payment of any amount not exceeding 50 times with regard to coins of denomination of less than 5 rupees and not exceeding 100 times with regard to coins of 5 rupees and higher denominations.
- (2) Any currency note issued under this Act shall cease to be legal tender where it is no longer in conformity with the specifications published by the Bank.
- (3) Any coin issued under this Act that has been impaired, diminished or lightened otherwise than by normal wear and tear, or has been defaced by having any name, word, device or number stamped or engraved on it, whether the coin has or has not been thereby diminished or lightened, shall no longer be legal tender.

38. Demonetisation of currency notes and coins

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board may, by publication in the Gazette, declare that any currency note or coin shall cease to be legal tender and provide for any matters incidental to the calling in and demonetisation of such currency notes or coins.

(2) The holder of any demonetised currency note or coin, referred to in subsection (1), may, within such time and upon such conditions as may be determined by the Board and published in the Gazette, claim payment of the face value of such notes and coins from the Bank.

39. Recovery of lost, stolen, mutilated or otherwise damaged currency

(1) Subject to subsection (2), no person shall be entitled to recover from the Bank the value of any lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect currency note or coin.

(2) The circumstances in which, and the conditions and limitations subject to which, the value of lost, stolen, mutilated or imperfect currency notes or coins may be refunded shall be within the absolute discretion of the Bank.

40. Possession of paper for currency notes

(1) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, makes use of or knowingly has in his possession a paper with a word, figure, device or distinction peculiar to and appearing in the substance of the paper used for currency notes or material upon which the whole or part of a currency note purporting to resemble a currency note has been engraved or made or any facsimile of the signature of any signatory whose signature has appeared or appears on currency notes, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(2) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, mutilates, cuts, tears or perforates a currency note, or in any way defaces a currency note whether by writing, printing, drawing or stamping or by attaching or affixing to it anything in the nature or form of an advertisement, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

41. Imitation of currency notes

- (1) Any person who-
- (a) makes or causes to be made;
 - (b) uses for any purpose; or
 - (c) alters,

any document purporting to be or in any way resembling or so nearly resembling, as to be calculated to deceive, a currency note or a part of a currency note shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(2) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, makes or knowingly keeps in his possession any plate, block, die or other instrument used for, or capable of being used for, printing or reproducing any document referred to in subsection (1), shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(3) Any person whose name appears on a document, the making of which is an offence under this section, who refuses to disclose to a police officer the name and address of the person by whom it was printed or made shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

(4) The Court may, upon the conviction of a person under subsection (1) or (2), order the document and any copies of that document and any plates, blocks, dies or other instruments, which are in the possession of the offender, to be destroyed.

(5) Where the name of a person appears on a document in respect of which a charge for an offence under this section has been laid or on any other document used or distributed in connection with that document, it shall be prima facie evidence that that person caused the document to be made.

(6) In this section –

“currency note” –

(a) means a note issued under this Act; and

(b) includes a foreign currency note that is legal tender in the jurisdiction of a foreign State.

42. Counterfeit currency notes

Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse has in his possession any forged, counterfeited or altered currency note or any unfinished or incomplete currency note purporting to be issued by the Bank, knowing same to be forged, counterfeited or altered, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to penal servitude.

43. Counterfeiting of coins

(1) Any person who makes or causes to be made, or knowingly offers, utters, disposes of or passes off a counterfeit coin shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(2) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, makes or knowingly keeps in his possession any die or other instrument or machine used or intended to be used for coinage or counterfeiting shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(3) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, has in his possession, knowing the same to be counterfeit, counterfeit coin or tokens purporting to have been issued as coin by the Bank, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(4) Any person who, without lawful authority or excuse, melts down, breaks up or uses otherwise than as currency, any coin which has been or is legal tender, whether in Mauritius or in any other country, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude.

(5) In this section -

“coin” means a coin issued or deemed to have been issued under this Act;

“counterfeit coin or token” means any coin or token which is counterfeit or resembles or so nearly resembles a coin or token as to be calculated to deceive;

“token” means any chip, coupon or other document which is held out as having been issued as a coin by the Bank and which is intended or calculated to be used as such.

(6) The Court shall, on conviction, order the forfeiture and destruction of every coin or token which is the subject matter of an offence under this section and any metal or other material, die, machine or other equipment or instrument used for, or capable of being used for, making such coins or tokens.

43A. Reproduction of currency notes, bank notes or coins

(1) Except for educational or informational purposes, no person shall, in any size, scale or colour, use any photograph of, or any drawing or design resembling, any Mauritius currency note, bank note or coin issued under section 35 in any form or for any purpose whatsoever, without the written permission of the Bank.

(1A) Any permission under subsection (1) shall be granted against payment of such non-refundable processing fee as the Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, prescribe.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees.

44. Forgery

Any person who -

(a) forges, counterfeits or alters a currency note or a word, figure, mark, sign, signature or facsimile upon or attached to the note; or

(b) offers, utters, disposes of, or passes off a currency note, knowing it to be forged or counterfeited or altered, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 2 million rupees and to penal servitude.

45. Evidence in proceedings

(1) In any proceedings in which the genuineness of a currency note or coin purporting to have been issued by the Bank is in question, a certificate under the hand of a Deputy Governor to the effect that such currency note or coin is spurious or genuine shall be received in all Courts as conclusive evidence of the spuriousness or genuineness, as the case may be, of such purported currency note or coin.

(2) The Deputy Governor shall not be examined or cross-examined with respect to any such certificate.

(3) The certificate shall be in the form specified in the Fourth Schedule.

45B. Special Drawing Rights

In any proceedings before any Court, a certificate by a Deputy Governor of the Central Bank stating that –

- (a) a sum in rupees has been determined for a special drawing right for a particular date; or
- (b) a sum in rupees has been so determined for a date which is the last preceding date for which a sum has been so determined, shall be conclusive evidence of those matters for the purposes of the Merchant Shipping Act and a document purporting to be such a certificate shall, in any proceedings, be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be such a certificate.

PART VII - OFFICIAL FOREIGN RESERVES AND SPECIAL RESERVE FUND

46. Official foreign reserves

(1) Subject to this section, the Bank shall maintain and manage, on a best effort basis, the official foreign reserves of Mauritius consisting of all or any of the following –

- (a) gold;
- (b) foreign exchange in the form of currency or bank balances held by the Bank or for its account abroad, denominated in convertible currencies;
- (c) the holdings by Mauritius of Special Drawing Rights issued by the International Monetary Fund;
- (d) securities denominated in convertible currencies, and claims resulting from their purchase or sale and repurchase;
- (e) such other assets denominated in convertible currencies as the Board may approve.

(2) The Board shall determine the composition of the official foreign reserves and it shall aim to achieve their security, liquidity and return, in that order of priority.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall determine the investment policy regarding the management of the official foreign reserves of Mauritius.

(4) Subject to section 25, the Bank may appoint any consultant, or other person, of international repute and with proven experience, to manage the official foreign reserves on its behalf.

(5) The Bank may, for the purpose of section 6 (1)(y), invest, with the approval of the Board, such amount of the official foreign reserves as the Board may determine in any corporation or company set up for the purpose of facilitating economic development and any amount so invested shall not be included in the computation of the official foreign reserves of Mauritius.

47. Special Reserve Fund

(1) Any net realised gains or losses in any financial year of the Bank arising from changes in the valuation of its assets or liabilities in, or denominated in, gold, Special Drawing Rights, or foreign currencies as a result of any change in the values or exchange rates of gold, Special Drawing Rights, or foreign currencies in terms of the domestic currency, shall be credited or debited to a Special Reserve Fund.

(1A) Any unrealised gains or losses of the Bank in any financial year, arising from changes in the valuation of investments held by the Bank, shall be credited to or debited from the Special Reserve Fund.

(2) Net gains or net losses referred to in this section shall not be included in the computation of the annual income of the Bank.

(3) The balance standing in the Foreign Exchange Rate Fluctuation Reserve held by the Bank shall be deemed to be transferred to the credit of the Special Reserve Fund.

(4) Where the balance of the Fund is insufficient to cover any net unrealised losses in any financial year, Government shall, notwithstanding this Act, issue to the Bank negotiable interest bearing Government securities to the extent of the deficiency.

(5) Funds out of the Special Reserve Fund may be used, only and strictly, in the following order of priority –

- (a) for the purpose of increasing the amount paid as capital of the Bank in accordance with section 10(4);
- (b) by the Bank, in exceptional circumstances and with the approval of the Board –
 - (i) for monetary policy purposes;
 - (ii) for repayment of central government external debt obligations, provided that this is not likely to adversely affect the efficient discharge by the Bank of its functions under this Act.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the Board may, on account of the Covid-19 virus having a negative impact on the economy of Mauritius, approve such grant from the Special Reserve Fund to assist Government in its fiscal measures to stabilise the economy of Mauritius.

PART VIII - RELATIONS WITH BANKS AND OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

48. Facilities to financial market infrastructure and payment scheme providers

(1) The Bank may provide facilities, including intra-day credit, to payment, clearing and settlement systems and their participants, to ensure the safety, soundness and efficiency of such systems.

(2) The Bank may organise, own, participate in and operate systems referred to in subsection (1).

(3) With a view to promoting sound payments instruments, the Bank may also organise, own, participate in, operate or promote payment schemes.

49. Minimum cash balances

(1) The Bank may require all banks to maintain minimum cash balances up to 25 per cent of each bank's total deposit and other liabilities as the Bank may specify.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Bank may, as it may determine, not impose a minimum cash balance requirement in respect of deposits and other liabilities of a bank, to the extent that such deposits and other liabilities have no impact on the money supply in Mauritius.

(3) Cash balances under subsection (1) shall consist of balances held with the Bank and may also include currency notes and coins in the vaults of banks.

(4) Subject to the overall limit specified in subsection (1), the Bank may prescribe different ratios for different types of liabilities and may further prescribe the method of computing the amount of required reserves provided that the ratios shall be uniform for all banks.

(5) Any requirement by the Bank under subsections (1) and (3) shall be notified in writing and shall take effect on receipt of the notification or at such other time as the Bank may specify in the notice.

(6) The Bank may impose on any bank which fails to maintain the minimum balances required under this section a penalty charge at such rate of interest, which shall not be more than 3 times the prevailing published interest rate on advances to banks in accordance with section 8, as the Bank may determine from time to time calculated on the deficiency for so long as the failure continues and such charge may be recovered by deduction from any balance of, or money owing to, the bank concerned, or as if it were a civil debt.

(7) The Bank may require any financial institution to maintain such minimum cash balances as would be required under subsections (1) and (3) as if it were a bank and on the same terms and conditions as are specified in subsections (5) and (6), provided that the requirements are applied fairly and impartially, but may not necessarily be the same for all financial institutions, as the case may be.

50. Power to issue instructions

(1) The Bank may, whenever necessary, require the co-operation of, and co-operate with, banks and other financial institutions –

- (a) to promote and maintain adequate and reasonable banking services for the public;
- (b) to ensure high standards of conduct and management throughout the banking and credit system;
- (c) to regulate the banking and credit system so as to ensure a proper distribution of credit and a sound financial structure; and
- (d) to further such policies as may be in the national interest and not inconsistent with this Act.

(2) The Bank may, for the efficient achievement of the purposes of this Act, by notice in writing to banks or to other financial institutions, issue instructions or guidelines or impose requirements on or relating to the operations and activities of and standards to be maintained by the banks and other financial institutions.

(3) Any instructions or guidelines issued or requirements imposed under subsection (2) which shall be applied fairly and impartially but may not necessarily be the same for all banks and other financial institutions, shall take effect upon receipt of the notice or at such other time as the Bank may specify, being a date not earlier than the date of the notice.

(3A) (a) The Bank may, for the purposes of regulating, developing, or maintaining the proper functioning of the money market, foreign exchange market or derivatives market –

- (i) issue rules, codes, standards, principles or guidelines; and
- (ii) register or deregister dealers authorised to trade on these markets.

(b) No financial institution shall appoint as dealer any person who is not registered as an authorised dealer by the Bank.

(3B) – (Repealed)

(4) Any person to whom instructions or guidelines are issued or requirements are imposed under subsections (2), (3) and (3A) shall comply with those instructions, guidelines or requirements.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (4) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and, in the case of a continuing offence, to, after conviction, a further fine of 100,000 rupees for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

- (6) (a) Without prejudice to subsection (5) and notwithstanding the Banking Act and the other provisions of this Act, the Bank may impose an administrative penalty on any financial institution which refrains from complying, or negligently failed to comply, with any instructions or guidelines issued by the Bank or requirement imposed under the banking laws.
- (b) The Bank shall, when determining the quantum of the administrative penalty to be imposed on the financial institution, consider the gravity of the breach committed by the financial institution and the length of time during which the breach has been committed.
- (c) (i) The Bank may cause to be published, in such form and manner as it thinks fit, a public notice setting out the administrative penalty which has been imposed on a financial institution.
- (ii) The notice under subparagraph (i) shall not contain any information which the Bank considers to be sensitive.

(7) An administrative penalty under subsection (6) may be recovered by deduction from any balance of or money owing to the central bank as if it were a civil debt.

50A. Power to make rules

(1) The Bank may make such rules as it may determine for the purpose of the banking laws.

(2) Any rules made by the Bank under subsection (1) shall not require the prior approval of the Minister and shall be published in the Gazette.

51. Information from banks and other financial institutions

(1) The Bank may require any financial institution to furnish, at such time and in such manner and form as may be approved by the Bank, such information and data as the Bank may require for the proper discharge of its functions and responsibilities under the banking laws.

(1A) Where a financial institution is required to furnish information and data under subsection (1), the financial institution shall comply with the requirement in a timely manner.

(2) The Bank may publish, in whole or in part, and at such time as it may determine, the information or data furnished under subsection (1).

(3) - (4) – (Repealed)

(5) The Bank may examine the accounts, books, records and other documents, whether they are in written form or are kept on microfilm, magnetic tape or any other form of mechanical or electronic data retrieval mechanism of any financial institution, in order to verify its compliance with any requirement under the banking laws.

51A. Balance of payment

(1) The Bank shall be responsible for the preparation of the balance of payment accounts and the external assets and liabilities position of Mauritius.

(2) The Bank may, by notice in writing, require any person to furnish, within such time and in such form and manner as the Bank may determine, such information and data as the Bank may require for the preparation of the balance of payment accounts and the external assets and liabilities position of Mauritius.

(3) Where the Bank issues a notice to a person under subsection (2), the person shall comply with the notice.

(4) The Bank shall not publish any information furnished under subsection (2) without the written consent of the person.

(5) Where any person –

(a) fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (2);

(b) for the purposes of this section -

(i) knowingly furnishes information which is false or misleading in any material particular; or

(ii) wilfully or recklessly withholds any material information, the Bank may impose such penalty or charge not exceeding 50,000 rupees for each day on which such breach occurs and such penalty may be recovered by deduction from any balance of or money owing to the Bank, as if it were a civil debt.

51B. Collection of statistics

(1) With a view to carrying out its objects pursuant to section 4(2) and discharging its functions pursuant to section 5, the Bank shall, without prejudice to sections 51 and 51A, request the competent authorities, or any other entity, in Mauritius to furnish to the Bank the necessary statistical information.

(2) Where the information requested under subsection (1) is not furnished to the Bank in a timely manner, the Bank shall, in consultation with the competent authorities, collect the required information from the relevant entities.

(3) For the purpose of section 5(1)(d), the Bank, the Financial Services Commission and Statistics Mauritius shall coordinate and collaborate with a view to harmonising the rules and practices governing the collection, compilation and dissemination of statistics.

52. Establishment of a Credit Information Bureau

(1) Notwithstanding section 51A(4) or any other enactment, the Bank may, for the purpose of ensuring the operation of a sound credit information system in, and maintaining the stability and soundness of the financial system of, Mauritius, establish a Credit Information Bureau and require, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, any institution offering credit, including leasing facilities and hire purchase or, any crowdlending platform or any utility body, to furnish at such time and in such manner such credit information or such other information as it may require for the purpose of -

- (a) maintaining a database on recipients of credit facilities and guarantors and such other information as may reasonably assist in ensuring the soundness of the credit information system;
- (b) collecting, consolidating and collating trade, credit and financial information on recipients of credit facilities, whether fund-based or non fund-based;
- (c) storing the information so collected;
- (d) disclosing, or allowing access, to such institutions as it may approve, the information so collected, subject to such conditions as it may determine; and
- (e) assisting the Bank in the discharge of its functions under section 5(1).

(1A) Any institution offering credit, including leasing facilities and hire purchase, or any crowdlending platform or any any utility body, may be required by the Bank to become a participating institution of the Credit Information Bureau.

(1B) Notwithstanding section 26, the Bank shall participate in the Credit Information Bureau and furnish to it, at such time and in such manner as may be required by the Credit Information Bureau, such credit information on credit facilities granted to members of the staff of the Bank.

(2) Subject to subsection (2A), the credit information so collected shall be used for the purpose of meeting the objectives of the Credit Information Bureau and shall be kept confidential between the Bank and participating institutions.

(2A) The Bank may impart, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, information maintained in the Credit Information Bureau to –

- (a) such bodies as it considers appropriate for credit rating purposes;
- (aa) the Credit Scoring Services Agency established under section 52B;
- (b) any public sector agency or law enforcement agency to enable the agency to discharge, or assist it in discharging, any of its functions; or
- (c) such institutions and for such purpose as it may determine, where the person from whom the information is being sought has given his written consent for the information to be disclosed to the institution.

(2B) Any duty of confidentiality which may have been imposed on any participating institution under any enactment shall not apply where the information is required for transmission to and meeting the purposes of the Credit Information Bureau.

(2C) A utility body may, for the purposes of providing credit information to the Credit Information Bureau, require any of its customers to provide it with the necessary identification details.

(3) Any participating institution processing an application for credit facilities shall have recourse to the information from the Credit Information Bureau for this purpose and shall inform the customer that all available information will be used for the processing of the application.

(4) Where the applicant for credit facilities is not satisfied with the credit information obtained from the Credit Information Bureau for that purpose, he may consult the Credit Information Bureau and the Credit Information Bureau shall inform him of the manner in which his total credit exposure was arrived at.

(5) Where it appears to the Bank that any participating institution has refrained from complying, or negligently failed to comply, with any requirement imposed under this section, the Bank may -

- (a) by directive, require the participating institution to remedy the situation;
- (b) impose such penalty or charge not exceeding 50,000 rupees for each day on which such breach occurs and such penalty may be recovered by deduction from any balance of or money owing to the Bank, as if it were a civil debt; or
- (c) in the absence of any reasonable excuse, proceed against it under section 11 or 17 of the Banking Act on the ground that it is carrying on business in a manner which is contrary to the interests of the public or refer the matter to the relevant supervisory authority for action as appropriate.

(5A) Subsections 5(a) and (b) shall apply to an institution, a crowdlending platform or a utility body which fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1A) as they would apply to a participating institution.

(6) Neither the Bank nor any participating institution shall be liable to any prosecution, action or suit in respect of any matter or thing done by them in the discharge, in good faith, of their duty under this section.

(7) In this section –

“crowdlending platform” means an online portal or electronic platform to facilitate the offering, execution or issuance of funds between prospective lenders and borrowers, and which holds an appropriate licence issued by the Financial Services Commission;

“utility body” –

- (a) means a body corporate which supplies utility services to consumers; and
- (b) includes –
 - (i) the Central Electricity Board established under the Central Electricity Board Act;
 - (ii) the Central Water Authority established under the Central Water Authority Act;
 - (iii) the Waste Water Management Authority established under the Waste Water Management Authority Act;
 - (iv) a licensee under the Information and Communication Technologies Act; and
 - (v) such other body as may by Order be designated by the Bank.

52A. Establishment of Central KYC Registry

(1) Notwithstanding section 51A(4) and any other enactment, the Bank may, for the purpose of collecting KYC records submitted to KYC institutions by their customers, establish a Central KYC Registry and require any KYC institution to furnish to the Registry, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, such information as it may require for the purpose of maintaining the Registry.

(1A) The Bank may seek the collaboration or co-operation of the Financial Services Commission and such other agency, other than the Financial Intelligence Unit or the Counterterrorism Unit, as may be necessary for the establishment of the Registry.

(1B) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Financial Services Commission and any agency referred to in subsection (1A) may extend such collaboration and assistance as they may determine to the Bank for the prompt and efficient establishment of the Registry.

(1C) The Bank may, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, disclose, or allow access to, the information collected on the Registry to such person or institutions as it may approve, including a public sector agency or a law enforcement agency, to enable the person, institutions including any agency to discharge, or assist it in discharging, any of its functions.

(2) Any duty of confidentiality which may have been imposed on any KYC institution under any enactment shall not apply where the information is required for transmission to the Registry.

(3) Every KYC institution shall inform its customers that their KYC records shall be submitted to the Registry.

(4) Where it appears to the Bank that any KYC institution has refrained from complying, or negligently failed to comply, with any requirement imposed under this section, the Bank may –

- (a) by directive, require the KYC institution to remedy the situation;

- (b) impose such penalty or charge not exceeding 50,000 rupees for each day on which such breach occurs and the penalty may be recovered by deduction from any balance of the KYC institution with, or as money owing to, the Bank as if it were a civil debt; or
- (c) in the absence of any reasonable excuse, proceed against the KYC institution under section 11 or 17 of the Banking Act on grounds that it is carrying on business in a manner which is contrary to the interests of the public or, in the case of any other KYC institution, refer the matter to the relevant supervisory authority for such action as it may deem appropriate.

(5) Neither the Bank nor any KYC institution shall be liable to any prosecution, action or suit in respect of any matter or thing done by them in the discharge, in good faith, of their functions under this section.

(6) The Bank may, for the purpose of this section, make such regulations or issue such instructions or guidelines as it deems necessary.

(7) In this section –

“Central KYC Registry” or “Registry” means the central registry established under subsection (1);

“KYC institution” means any institution or person, duly licensed by the Bank or the Financial Services Commission established under the Financial Services Act which or who is required to identify and verify the identity of its or his customers under the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act;

“KYC records” means the records, including the electronic records, relied upon by a KYC institution in carrying out customer due diligence verification.

52B. Establishment of Credit Scoring Services Agency

(1) Notwithstanding section 51A(4) or any other enactment, the Bank may, by itself, through a subsidiary or any other legal entity, establish a Credit Scoring Services Agency for the purpose of providing credit scores on an applicant for credit on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

(2) The Bank may, for the purpose of subsection (1) –

- (a) make use of information available in the Credit Information Bureau established under section 52; and
- (b) request any person to provide it with such information as it may consider necessary for the establishment of the Credit Scoring Services Agency.

(3) Notwithstanding section 26 or any confidentiality provisions under any enactment, the Credit Information Bureau and any person to whom a request is made under subsection (2) shall extend assistance to, and comply with the request of, the Credit Scoring Services Agency.

(4) The Bank may impart, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, information maintained in the Credit Scoring Services Agency to –

- (a) any public sector agency or law enforcement agency to enable the public sector or agency to discharge, or assist it in discharging, any of its functions; or
- (b) such institution and for such purpose as it may determine, where the person from whom the information is sought has given his written consent for the information to be disclosed to the institution.

(5) Where the applicant for credit is not satisfied with the credit score provided by the Credit Scoring Services Agency, he may consult the Credit Scoring Services Agency which shall inform him of the manner in which his credit score was computed and assessed.

(6) The Bank may, for the purpose of this section, make such regulations or issue such directives, instructions or guidelines as it may determine.

(7) In this section –

“credit score” means an assessment of the creditworthiness of an applicant for credit.

53. Offence by financial institution

Any financial institution which -

- (a) fails to comply with section 49, 50 or 51; or
- (b) fails to furnish, within the time limit specified by the Bank, any information required to satisfy the Bank that it is complying with the provisions of section 49, 50 or 51, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100,000 rupees for each day on which the offence occurs or continues.

PART VIII A – BANKING SERVICES REVIEW PANEL

53A. Banking Services Review Panel

(1) There is set up for the purposes of this Part an ad hoc review panel which shall be known as the Banking Services Review Panel or the Review Panel.

(2) Any financial institution which is dissatisfied with a decision of the Bank relating to the imposition of –

- (a) a limitation on the quantum of fees or charges under section 6(1)(w);
- (b) a penalty under section 49(6) or 52(5)(b); or

(c) an administrative penalty under section 50(6), may apply to the Review Panel, in a form approved by the Review Panel, for a review of the decision.

53B. Membership of Review Panel

- (1) The Review Panel shall consist of –
 - (a) a Chairperson, who shall be a barrister of not less than 5 years' standing and who shall be appointed by the Minister on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine;
 - (b) a Vice-Chairperson, who shall be the Solicitor-General or his representative; and
 - (c) the Financial Secretary or his representative.
- (2)
 - (a) The Review Panel may co-opt any person having experience in the field of financial services, business, accounting or law to assist it in the discharge of its functions.
 - (b) A person co-opted under paragraph (a) shall be deemed to be a member of the Review Panel.
- (3) At any sitting of the Review Panel, 2 members shall constitute a quorum.
- (4) The members of the Review Panel shall take the oath of confidentiality set out in the Second Schedule.

53C. Termination of appointment

- (1) The Chairperson of the Review Panel may resign by giving one month's notice in writing to the Minister.
- (2) The Chairperson of the Review Panel shall cease to hold office where he is, in the opinion of the Minister, unfit to be the Chairperson because of breach of trust, misconduct or default in the discharge of his duties.

53D. Staff of Review Panel

The Bank shall extend such technical, administrative and secretarial assistance as may be necessary to enable the Review Panel to properly discharge its functions under the banking laws.

53E. Proceedings of Review Panel

- (1) Any party to proceedings before the Review Panel may be represented by counsel or attorney or any other representative duly authorised by him, who shall be allowed reasonable opportunity to present the case and in particular, to inspect documents which the Review Panel proposes to consider in determining the matter at issue.

(2) The burden of proving that the decision of the Bank is incorrect, or what the decision should be, shall lie on the financial institution.

(3) The Review Panel shall not be bound by the rules of evidence but may be guided by them on such matter as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) (a) The Chairperson of the Review Panel may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to the proceedings of the Review Panel.

(b) Rules made under paragraph (a) may provide for the payment of costs by the parties in relation to the matter before the Review Panel.

(5) In the exercise of its functions, the Review Panel shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

(6) Subject to this section, the Review Panel shall regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit and shall ensure that proceedings are conducted in a manner which is consistent with the rules of natural justice and procedural fairness.

53F. Determination of Review Panel

(1) On the hearing of an application for review, the Review Panel may –

(a) confirm, amend or cancel a decision made by the Bank; or

(b) remit the matter to the Bank for reconsideration.

(2) Where there is a disagreement among the members of the Review Panel, the decision of the majority shall be the determination of the Review Panel.

(3) Every determination of the Review Panel shall be in writing, and shall include the reasons for the determination, a statement of its findings on material questions of fact and a reference to the evidence or other material on which the findings are based.

(4) The Review Panel shall cause its determination to be communicated to every party to the proceedings.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), a determination of the Review Panel shall come into operation on the date of the determination.

(6) The Review Panel may specify in the determination the date on which the determination is to come into operation.

(7) Any determination of the Review Panel shall not be altered or set aside except by the Review Panel or with the consent of the parties to the proceedings and with the concurrence of the Review Panel.

(8) Every determination of the Review Panel shall be published in such form and manner as the Review Panel thinks fit, but the names of the parties and any information which the Review Panel considers to be sensitive shall be omitted.

53G. Powers of Review Panel

(1) For the purpose of reviewing a decision referred to in section 53A(2), the Review Panel may –

- (a) administer an oath;
- (b) proceed in the absence of a party who, by notice, has been given a reasonable opportunity to attend the proceedings; or
- (c) from time to time, adjourn the proceedings.

(2) The Review Panel may, for the purposes of a hearing, summon a person to appear before the Review Panel to –

- (a) give evidence; or
- (b) produce documents in the possession, custody or control of the person or persons named in the summons.

53H. Protection of persons before Review Panel

(1) A person appearing before the Review Panel on behalf of a party shall have the same protection and immunity as a barrister has in appearing for a party in proceedings before the Supreme Court.

(2) Subject to this Act, a person summoned to attend or to appear before the Review Panel as a witness shall have the same protection, and shall, in addition to the penalties provided by this Act, be subject to the same liabilities as a witness in proceedings before the Supreme Court.

53I. Offences relating to proceedings of Review Panel

Any person who, without reasonable cause –

- (a) fails to attend the Review Panel after having been summoned to do so under section 53G(2);
- (b) refuses to take an oath before the Review Panel, or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his knowledge and belief any question lawfully put to him in any proceedings before the Review Panel or to produce documents when required to do so under section 53G(2);
- (c) knowingly gives false evidence, or evidence which he knows to be misleading, before the Review Panel;
- (d) at any hearing of the Review Panel –
 - (i) wilfully insults a member;
 - (ii) wilfully interrupts or disturbs the proceedings; or

- (e) does any other act or thing that would, if the Review Panel were a court of law, constitute a contempt of the court, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

53J. Judicial review

Any party who or which is dissatisfied with the determination of the Review Panel may apply to the Supreme Court for a judicial review of the determination.

PART IX – MONETARY POLICY COMMITTEE

54. Monetary Policy Committee

(1) There is set up for the purposes of section 5(1)(a) and (2)(a) a Monetary Policy Committee which shall consist of -

- (a) the Governor, who shall be the Chairperson of the Committee;
- (b) the 2 Deputy Governors;
- (c) 2 other persons, having recognised experience in the field of economics, banking or finance, who shall be appointed by the Prime Minister; and
- (d) 3 other persons, not being Directors or employees of the Bank, having recognised experience in the field of economics, banking or finance, who shall be appointed by the Minister.

(2) The persons referred to in subsection (1)(d) shall –

- (a) not be actively engaged in any political activity; and
- (b) be appointed on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

(2A) The Committee shall publish a Code of Conduct to govern its meetings and report once a year to the Board regarding its compliance with the Code of Conduct.

(2B) At a meeting of the Committee, 5 members, including at least 4 from members appointed under subsection (1)(c) and (d), shall constitute a quorum.

- (2C) (a) The Chairperson of the Committee may authorise a member of the Committee to participate in a meeting of the Committee through teleconferencing where, prior to the meeting, the member has, by notification to the Chairperson, requested such an authorisation.
- (b) A member who participates in a meeting through teleconferencing shall be treated as being present at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote.
- (c) For the purpose of this subsection –

“teleconferencing” means two-way communication by video, telephone or any other means using modern technology.

(2D) Every member of the Committee, other than the Governor and the Deputy Governors, shall take an oath of confidentiality in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule.

(2E) A decision of the Committee shall be taken by a simple majority of the members present and voting except that, in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Committee shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.

(3) The Committee shall, subject to this section, regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it may determine.

55. Functions of Committee

(1) The functions of the Committee shall be to formulate and determine the monetary policy to be conducted by the Bank in order to implement section 5(2) and to maintain price stability, taking into account the orderly and balanced economic development of Mauritius.

(1A) With a view to improving the coordination of monetary and fiscal policy, the Committee shall, in the discharge of its functions, take into account the views of the Bank, the Ministry and such other institution or organisation as it considers appropriate.

- (2)
- (a) The Bank shall, after every meeting of the Committee, publish in such manner as it thinks fit –
 - (i) as soon as practicable, the gist of the monetary policy to be conducted by the Bank; and
 - (ii) the minutes of the meeting, not later than 2 weeks after the date of the meeting.
 - (b) The minutes published under paragraph (a)(ii) shall record, in relation to any decision of the Committee, the voting preference of the members who took part in the vote on the decision.

(3) In the discharge of its functions, the Committee shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

PART IXA – FINANCIAL STABILITY COMMITTEE

55A. Financial Stability Committee

- (1) There is set up a Financial Stability Committee which shall consist of –
- (a) the Minister, who shall be the Chairperson of the Committee;
 - (aa) the Minister to whom responsibility for the subject of financial services is assigned;

- (b) the Governor;
- (c) the Financial Secretary;
- (d) the Chief Executive of the Financial Services Commission established under the Financial Services Act; and
- (e) the Director of the Financial Intelligence Unit appointed under the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act.

(2) The functions of the Committee shall be to regularly review and ensure the soundness and stability of the financial system.

(3) The Committee shall meet as often as is necessary and shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it thinks fit.

PART X - RELATIONS WITH GOVERNMENT

56. Government banker and financial adviser

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Bank shall be the banker to Government, its adviser on monetary and financial matters and the depository of the official foreign exchange reserves of Mauritius and of Government funds.

(2) The Bank may also act in such capacities to any Ministry, Government Department, local authority or statutory corporation.

(3) Government may maintain working balances, at such market rates as the Bank may determine, and shall generally make use of the services of banks on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Bank, Government and the parties concerned.

(4) The Minister may request the Bank to tender advice and to furnish reports on matters relating to the objects of the Bank.

(5) The Bank shall advise the Minister on any matter which is likely to affect the achievement of its objects.

57. Bank may issue public loans

The Bank may undertake the issue and management of loans publicly issued in Mauritius by Government.

58. Advances to and deposits from Government

(1) Notwithstanding section 6(1)(a), the Bank may grant advances to Government to cover negative net cash flows of Government at such rate as may be agreed with Government.

(2) The total amount of such advances outstanding, together with the amount of Government securities in the ownership of the Bank, other than under repurchase agreements and those held under section 6(1)(j), shall not at any time exceed 10 per cent of Government's revenue excluding grants and receipts of a capital nature for the current financial year.

(3) Any advances under subsection (1) shall be repaid as soon as possible and shall, in any event, be repayable not later than 4 months from the time the advances are granted.

(4) Where any advances have not been repaid within the time specified under subsection (3), any advances outstanding shall be converted into Government securities at market rates.

(5) Any Government deposits with the Bank shall be compensated at such market rates as may be determined by the Bank in accordance with section 56(3).

59. Bank to act as Government's agent

Unless inconsistent with this Act or with its duties and functions as a central bank, the Bank may act generally as agent for Government on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed.

PART XI - MISCELLANEOUS

60. Deposit insurance

The Bank may -

- (a) advance funds to the deposit insurance scheme established pursuant to section 93 of the Banking Act, on such repayment terms and conditions as it deems fit for the administration of the scheme; and
- (b) where the entity responsible for the administration of the deposit insurance scheme is a company, purchase share capital of that entity.

61. Restriction on names of banks

Except on the recommendation of the Board and with the written consent of the Minister, no bank shall, notwithstanding the Companies Act, be registered by a name which includes the word "Central", "National", "Mauritius", "Mauritian", "Reserve", "Republic" or "State" or its equivalent in any other language.

62. Standards of good administration

- (1) The Bank shall –
 - (a) use the powers given to it under the banking laws equitably and uniformly and in accordance with sound administrative practices; and
 - (b) refrain from using any such power to serve an objective for which the power was not given or in excess of what shall be required to achieve the objective for which the power was given.

- (2) Every decision of the Bank taken pursuant to banking laws shall be –
- (a) impartial;
 - (b) motivated only by objective and rational considerations; and
 - (c) executed with fairness and restraint.

63. Protection from liability

No action shall lie against the Bank, the Board or any Director, officer, employee or agent of the Bank, in respect of any act done or omitted to be done by the Bank, the Board or any Director, officer, employee or agent of the Bank, in the execution, in good faith, of its or his functions under this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

64. Exemption from taxes

Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Bank shall not be liable to any tax imposed on income, profits or capital gains.

65. Liquidation and reduction of capital of Bank

The Bank shall not be placed in liquidation, nor shall its capital be reduced, except pursuant to an Act passed for that purpose.

66. Records

Every record of the Bank shall be kept in written form, or on microfilm, magnetic tape, optical disk or any other form of mechanical or electronic data storage and retrieval mechanism, for a period of at least 7 years after the completion of the transaction to which it relates, or the date of the record, as the case may be.

67. Service of process

Service of any process by or on the Bank shall be sufficient if made on behalf of, or on, a Deputy Governor.

68. Prosecution for offence

(1) Any person who contravenes any regulations made under this Act shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 200,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

(2) No prosecution for an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

69. Compounding of offences

(1) The Bank may, with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions, compound any offence committed by a person under this Act which is prescribed as a compoundable offence, where the person agrees in writing to pay such amount not exceeding the maximum penalty specified for the offence, acceptable to the Bank.

(2) Every agreement to compound shall be final and conclusive and, on payment of the agreed amount, no further proceedings in regard to the offence shall be taken against the person who agreed to the compounding.

(3) (a) The Bank may cause to be published, in such form and manner as it may determine, a public notice setting out the particulars of the agreed amount under subsection (1).

(b) A notice under subparagraph (a) shall not contain any information which the Bank considers to be sensitive.

70. Regulations

(1) The Minister may -

- (a) make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) by regulations, prescribe the offences which shall be compoundable offences for the purposes of section 69;
- (c) by regulations, amend the Schedules.

(2) Any regulations made under this section may -

- (a) provide for the payment of fees and the levying of charges; and
- (b) provide that any person who contravenes them shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 200,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the Bank may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations for the purpose of section 48.

71. Repeal and savings
