Public Consultation: Draft Guideline for private banking business

20 August 2021

The Bank of Mauritius (“Bank”) introduced, in February 2017, Guidelines for banks licensed to carry on private banking business.

Following consultation with the banking industry and developments in the regulatory and supervisory framework for banks conducting private banking operations, the Bank has now issued an updated draft Guideline for private banking business (“Guideline”) for public consultation.

The draft Guideline can be accessed on the website of the Bank at the following link:
